

CORRIN A. CICORIA, ESQ.

Partner at Resnick Law Group, P.C.

We are thrilled to announce that Corrin Cicoria has been promoted to Partner! This promotion recognizes Corrin's exceptional legal talent, unwavering dedication to clients, and significant contributions to the firm's successes over the years.

Corrin is an indispensable member of our team involved in all facets of our legal practice, from client intakes through trials. She has worked alongside Managing Partner, Gerald Resnick, for over 25 years, learning from his mentorship and guidance. Her extensive experience, coupled with her exceptional academic rigor, has equipped her with a distinct and invaluable employment law skillset.

Corrin's contributions in preparing for trial and at trial itself have been pivotal. Her efforts have led not only to successful trial outcomes, but also multi-million-dollar settlements. This has earned her a remarkable reputation for excellence and professionalism among her peers and colleagues.

Mr. Resnick has been particularly heartened by Corrin's steadfastness in pursuing her legal degree. "She continued making critical contributions to the firm while juggling her academics, demonstrating impressive commitment to her career and the firm," said Mr. Resnick. "The contributions she has already made are to be commended, and I am confident that she will continue to flourish as a Partner."

In her new role, Corrin will continue to focus on protecting employee rights and being a voice for her clients while taking on new leadership responsibilities within the firm. Corrin is honored and excited to be named a Partner at Resnick Law Group, P.C. and she looks forward to this new chapter in her career. She is determined to provide the highest level of service while helping to mentor the next generation of legal talent at the firm.

We are certain that Corrin will continue to be a driving force behind our firm's success. Please join us in congratulating Corrin on this well-deserved achievement!

